

Flexible Choke & Kill Hoses

All flexible Choke & Kill hoses feature full-flow bore, H₂S-resistant liners, and NACE-compliant couplings. Designed for well completion and critical safety measures for well control operations, with survivability temperatures up to 177 °C. Our hoses are built for durability and safety and meet the latest API and ISO standards – trusted worldwide, including Saudi Aramco approval.

Get more information about
Continental Oil & Gas Hoses